REPORT NO. 25X1X

The LEW (VVB VEM), Hennigsdorf (N 53/Z 76) had delivered 30 "Bobo locomotives" to the U.S.S.R. by 30 July 1951. The first of these locomotives was delivered on 15 May 1951. The delivery of all the locomotives within this short period of time was achieved because some parts, especially compressors, were supplied by the U.S.S.R. In the middle of July 1951 Czechoslovakia placed an order for the delivery of 100 narrow-gauge mine locomotives. *

Comment. Until its expropriation in 1945, the LEW Plant in Hennigsdorf was an enterprise of the AEG-Borsig. LEW means "Lokomotiv-Elektrotechnische Werke" - locomotive electro-technical plant. The plant mainly produces welding machines and electric locomotives. Bobo locomotives are large standard gauge electric locomotives.
